Dress Up Days...Let's go All In to show our Patriot Pride

- Monday, Jan. 12th: Let's leave the Knights Seeing Double (Twin Day): On our first day, let's team up with our favorite friends and leave the Knights seeing double. Students and faculty are encouraged to pair up and come as twins...or triplets...to show our Patriots that we are behind them all the way!
- Tuesday, Jan. 13th: Let's leave the Knights Frozen on Friday (Favorite Frozen Character): Calling all Elsas, Annas, Kristoffs and even our favorite little snowman and reindeer. Come show our Patriots that you are with them as we leave the Knights frozen on Friday night.
- Wednesday, Jan. 14th: Let's go Hunting for some Knights (Camo Day): Bring out the camo to blend into the woods as we get ready to hunt for the Knights. Hey, even find a duck or deer call if you need it.
- Thursday, Jan. 15th: Let's send the Knights back to the 70's (70's Decade dress): Bring out the Go-Go Boots, the bell-bottom jeans, and classic hair styles! We are packing things up to send the Knights back to the 70's.
- Friday, Jan. 16th: Show your Patriot Spirit! (CCA Spirit Day): Bring out your Red, White, and Blue to show our Patriots that we are "All In" as we cheer them onto Victory Friday night!

Spirit Week Dress Guidelines

- These are just suggestions. You may be creative and come up with other ideas, but stick to the theme for each day!
- Students who do not dress according to the theme of the day must be in their CCA uniform.
- For all dress up days, if you are not dressed appropriately and modestly, you will have to change into something else.
- Costumes may include knee length shorts or leggings under shorts. Absolutely NO short shorts or strapless dresses, etc.
- On Friday, which is our normal Spirit Day, you may wear shorts, but they must be uniform shorts.
- And as always, for the entire week remember the too rule — not too tight, not too loose, not too long, and not too short!

We are so excited about this year's Homecoming!

We hope to see you there!
