

Cumberland Christian Academy

Standardized Testing Report

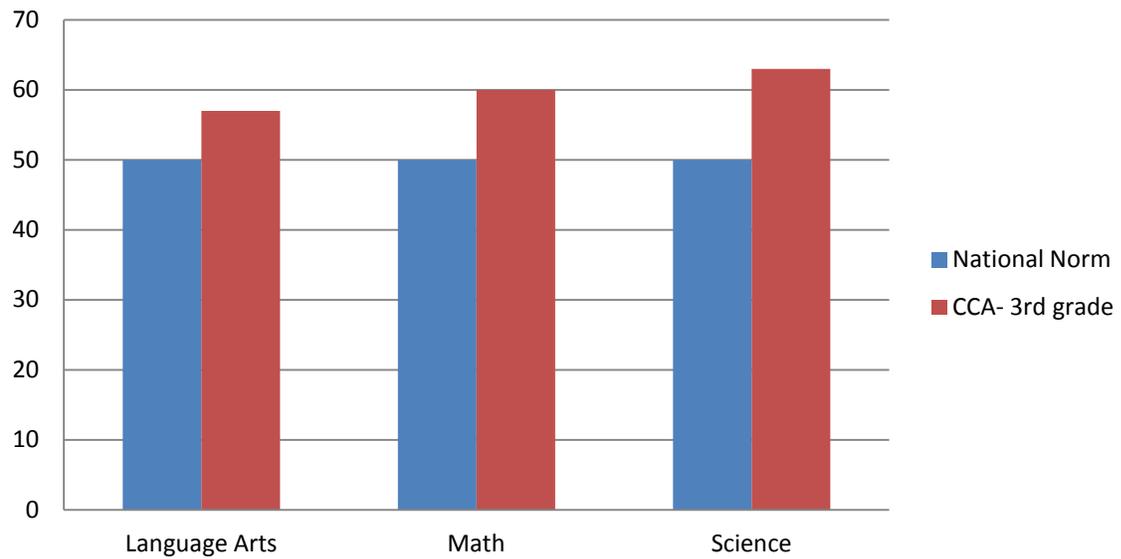

Cumberland Christian Academy is an accredited Christian school in Cobb County. Our scores are at the National Average or better for 94% of subcategories of the standardized test. Please note that these are percentiles, not percents. So when we say that our students scored in the 70th percentile, that means they did better, on average, than 70% of those taking this test. Please note that these scores represented in the graphs are our entire student body's average scores.
